TERMS OF TRAVEL

By signing this contract you confirm that you have carefully read and fully accept without exception our terms and conditions as written on our website.

Key Conditions

Please initial to indicate your understanding and acceptance of these key policies.

_____ Hotel breakfasts vary considerably from place to place and may not be suitable for some dietary restrictions. If necessary, we'll gladly help you find appropriate food elsewhere, but the cost will be your responsibility. (Section 3)

_____ Changes made to the itinerary after acceptance of this contract, either at your request or due to situations beyond our control (i.e., force majeure), may result in additional costs to you. (Section 4)

_____ The handicraft and food-making villages we go to are not typical tourist stops. Mostly we are visiting people at their homes and occasionally we find out last minute that the people will not be working when we are scheduled to visit. Or sometimes the weather means they can't work. If this happens we will try to substitute a similar stop elsewhere, but it is not always possible. (Section 4C)

_____ You agree to act in a culturally respectful manner and to follow your guide's instructions on safety and etiquette at all times. (Section 6B)

_____ You warrant that all participants are sufficiently healthy and fit to take part in this tour and that you have already informed us in writing about any medical or physical conditions that require special attention. (Section 7)

_____ Isan Explorer provides basic accident insurance for all guests, but the policy does not cover illness or travel complications, nor does it cover you before and after your tour with us begins and ends. Also, you must pay out of pocket at the hospital; reimbursement comes later after filing a claim. For all these reasons we strongly encourage you to have comprehensive travel insurance. (Section 8)

I have read this contract and agree to its contents in their entirety.
